EDUCATION

Spiced Academy, Berlin, Germany, 2023

12 weeks intensive training - Web Developer Full Stack

Specialized in full-stack development, mastering JavaScript, TypeScript, and frameworks like React, Next.js, Express, and Node.js. My hands-on experience includes building interactive web applications and collaborating effectively within development teams.

- Throughout the bootcamp, projects were organized into teams, covering a diverse range of tasks spanning from frontend to backend development. Each project in my GitHub portfolio showcases the collaborative effort and the skills honed during these team endeavors. From crafting engaging user interfaces to implementing backend functionalities, the projects exemplify my proficiency across various aspects of web development. Link here.

- For my final project, I created a private social media platform called MyCelery for my cohort. MyCelery is designed to help our team communicate and share content securely. Link here.
